CHANGING EXHIBITS

To capture the ever-evolving spirit of rock and roll, the exhibits are changed frequently, and some items are displayed on a temporary basis. As such, areas of the Museum
may be closed during your visit.

ADVISORY NOTICE
The Museum exhibits contain straightforward depictions of the history of rock and roll and its culture. Some exhibits and films contain mature themes and images.

CAFÉ
The Café serves light refreshments
and is accessible to ticketed
Museum visitors and members.

FACILITY RENTALS
The Museum is available for meetings and private events.
Please call 216.515.8420 for more information on facility rentals.

ACCESSIBILITY
The Museum is wheelchair accessible. Elevators serve all levels. The Museum maintains a limited number of wheelchairs at Coat Check and Braille guides at the Info Kiosk. Closed captioning is available for some films.

MUSEUM RULES
Strollers are not permitted on escalators. The Museum is a non-smoking facility. Smoking is only allowed on the Café Terrace,

Your Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum Experience...

Discover the cultural impact of the iconic festivals – from Newport, Woodstock and Wattstax to Coachella, Bonnaroo and Glastonbury. Then, immerse yourself in the sights and sounds of a festival day!

See the story of an American art form unfold before you. Feel the excitement and energy of the cultural phenomenon that rocked the world.

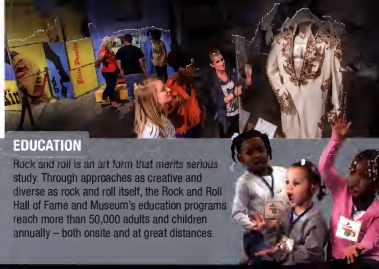

MUSEUM MEMBERSHIP

Become a member of the Museum and receive free admission all year, store discounts, advance notice about exhibits, programs and more. Join at the Member Window on lobby level or call 216.515.8425.

Memberships, admissions and store purchases help fund our efforts to educate the world on the social significance of the rock and roll art form.

EDUCATION

Rock and roll is an art form that merits serious study. Through approaches as creative and diverse as rock and roll itself, the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum's education programs reach more than 50,000 adults and children annually – both onsite and at great distances.

THE MUSEUM IS HOME TO:

- Exhibits that capture the story and evolution of rock and roll
- Films that pull you into the excitement of the music
- And the Hall of Fame, celebrating almost 30 years of Inductees with a multi-media experience
